TABLE OF CONTENTS

Number 1, January, 1946

A Quantitative Macro Flocculation Test for the Serodiagnosis of Syphilis. Fred Boerner and Marguerite Lukens 1

A Quantitative Fixation of Complement Test for the Diagnosis of Syphilis, Leptospirosis, Echinococcus Disease, Malaria, Bacterial and Other Diseases. Fred Boerner and Marguerite Lukens 4

A Method for Grouping and Classifying Serologic Reactions for Syphilis Based on Flocculation and Fixation of Complement Units. Fred Boerner 13

Xenopus Laevis Pregnancy Test. Report of a Series with a Small Number of Frogs. Ruth F. Rasmussen 15

The Use of Laked Blood Smears in the Early Diagnosis of Meningococcic Infections. S. Agnew and E. R. Giblett 18

Steiner's Silver Stain for Spirochetes in Tissue Sections. A Technician's Experience. Rubye A. J. Wilson 21

Centrifuged Agglutination Reactions for Serum Diagnosis and Bacterial Identification. Harry A. Feldman 25

A Practical and Inexpensive Method for Fixation of Paraffin Sections to Slides. Herbert M. Cobe and Alfred Schaeufle 31

Number 2, March, 1946

The Specific Gravity of Cerebrospinal Fluid. A Review of Methods and the Application of a Newer Micromethod in Spinal Anesthesia. Irving J. Wolman, Barnett Evans and Sigmund Lasker 33

An Accurate and Rapid Method for the Determination of Proteins in Small Amounts of Blood Serum and Plasma. T. E. Weichselbaum 40

A Rapid Method of Staining Frozen Sections of Tissue for Immediate Diagnosis. F. Proescher, Emmerson M. Zapata and James B. McNaught 50

A New Staining Method for Histologic Sections. Preliminary Report. J. Barbeito Lopez 53

Celloidin-Gum Mastic Film on Microtome Knife Edge to Facilitate Sectioning of Paraffin-Embedded Brain Tissue. Rubye A. J. Wilson 57

Direct Application of Potassium Bichromate and Mercuric Chloride to Staining Solutions Requiring these Agents as Mordants in Fixation for Embedding. Rubye A. J. Wilson 59

Paraffin Sections to Demonstrate Cellular Elements in Body Fluids. Eugene Hildebrand and Esther L. Cheatle 63

"Rush Section". Eugene Hildebrand and Esther L. Cheatle 65

Four Useful Suggestions to Tissue Technicians. Eugene Hildebrand and Esther L. Cheatle 67

Frozen Sections. Eugene Hildebrand and Esther L. Cheatle 69

Celloidin Processing of Eyeball to Preserve Contiguity of Elements. Charles B. Reitz 71

Number 3, May, 1946

Charts for Determining the Percentage Variation of Total Leucocyte Counts. Theron G. Randolph 75

Copper Sulphate Method for Hemoglobin Determination in Blood Donors. C. M. Zukerman 80

Gastric Juice. Simple Methods for Quantitative Determination of Protein Digestion and Pepsin Values. Eric A. Fennel ... 86
Amylase in Diabetics or a Technical Error. Eric A. Fennel ... 89
A Modified Staining Technic for Thick Drop Preparations. Leon J. Corbin ... 91
Test for Boric Acid as a Preservative in Milk. Ray F. Goding and Louise R. Cason ... 95
A New Reagent for the Qualitative Detection of Albumin in Urine. Adolph Bernhard and Yvette Scher ... 96
A Simple Sharpener for Microtome Blades. C. G. Culbertson ... 97
Yolk Sac Cultivation of Leishmania from Tissue and Culture. F. G. Wallace and T. R. Hamilton ... 101
Estimation of Red Blood Cell Count from Hematocrit. Alfred M. Freedman and I. Arthur Mirsky ... 104
The Patient and the Medical Technologist. Joseph M. Scott ... 110
News and Notices ... 114

Number 4, July, 1946

Staining of Chromaffin Tissue. George Gomori ... 115
Nomogram for Calculating Serum Total Base. Harold M. Lufkin and F. William Sunderman ... 118
A Nomogram for Photometric Determinations. Oscar Kanner ... 120
Use of Sodium Azide in Isolation of Gram-Positive Cocci. Virginia M. Schwarting ... 123
Micro Cephalin-Cholesterol Flocculation Test on Blood from Finger. Benjamin Krautman ... 127
Apparatus for Determination of Specific Gravity of Multiple Specimens of Urine. Irving J. Wolman, Barnett Evans and Sigmund Lasker ... 132
Spectrophotometric Method for Determination of Hemoglobin. Herman Cohen and Robert D. Barnard ... 135
Questions for Written Examinations for Registration of Medical Technologists, May 1945 and October 1945 ... 139

Number 5, September, 1946

A Simple Flocculation Slide Test for the Diagnosis of Schistosomiasis. J. Leonard Brandt and E. P. Finch ... 141
Photoelectric Determination of Sulfonamides in Blood Filtrates. E. G. Schmidt ... 153
Microscopic Examination of Urinary Calculi. Byron W. Fraser ... 156
A Rapid System for Routine Urine Analysis. Irving J. Wolman, Barnett Evans and Sigmund Lasker ... 162
Single Sample of Blood for Multiple Tests. Robert Wiese, William Bockman, Robert Cunningham, Loretta Van Hala, Oran Palmer, Herman Cohen and Robert D. Barnard ... 169
Vacutainer for Collection of Citrated Blood. William Burd, Andrew O'Rourke, Anthony Stuedeman, Arthur Maines and Robert D. Barnard ... 171
Vacutainer for Collection of Citrated Blood in Tests for Syphilis. Robert D. Barnard and Loretta Van Hala ... 172

Number 6, November, 1946

A New Histochemical Test for Glycogen and Mucin. G. Gomori ... 177
A Micromethod for Quantitative Estimation of Alcohol in Gastric and Intestinal Juices. Alexander S. Chaikelis and Ruth D. Floersheim ... 180
Trichrome Stain for Formalin-Fixed Tissue. Mildred Milligan ... 184
Reflector Rack for Agglutination Reactions. Martin E. Folan ... 186

A Simple Method for Obtaining Smears of the Bone Marrow of the Albino Rat. Mildred T. Vogel 189
Disposable Transfusion Tubing. Harold S. Tuft and Frank W. Konzelmann 191
Hematologic Calculator. D. Whillans 193
A Special Slide for Making Blood Smears. Mary B. Cooper 195
Value of Displacement in Staining and Preparing Histologic Slides. Seymour L. Handler and Edwin C. Weiskopf 196
News and Notices 201
Index of Subjects 203
